GATHERING TOGETHER

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHARING JOYS AND CONCERNS

CELEBRATION OF STEWARDSHIP: Brad Harville

PRELUDE: Standing on the Promises arr: Mark Hayes

CALL TO WORSHIP: from 1 John 1:5b-7, 4:7 Liz Herrick

Leader: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth

People: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

All: Let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

* GATHERING SONG: #473—For the Beauty of the Earth

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (unison) Liz Herrick

Most holy and merciful God, we confess to you and to one another, that we have sinned against you by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not fully loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not always had in us the mind of Christ. You alone know how often we have grieved you by wasting your gifts, by wandering from your ways. Most merciful Father, please forgive us. Free us from our sin. Renew in us the grace and strength of your Holy Spirit, for the sake of Jesus Christ your Son our Savior...(a time of silent confession). Amen.

SILENT CONFESSION
ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* GREETING ONE ANOTHER:

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE: Sanctuary

Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true.

With thanksgiving, I'll be a living sanctuary for you.

Today's flowers are given by Margaret Bloss to celebrate the birthdays of Ben Bird and Will Bird.

FROM LIZ HERRICK, TPC SEMINARY INTERN: I am a second year Master of Divinity student at Louisville Presbyterian Seminary. I grew up in Jackson, MI, where I was raised in the Presbyterian church. I began working with the children in my church in high school, and was ordained as an Elder my senior year. As I was deciding where to go to college, I began to feel a call to ministry. After a while I came to realize I would never be satisfied anywhere else. I graduated from Adrian College, a small school in southern Michigan, with a degree in Studio Art, with an emphasis in ceramics. During my first year of seminary I worked at Highland Presbyterian Church as their Christian Education Assistant. Last winter I began volunteering in the Faith and Art Center, where I was excited to be able to combine my passions for art and ministry. In my free time I swing dance, sing with Voces Novae, and play football with my school's intramural team. I am very excited to work with Trinity this year as I explore where my call might lead me.

The Gift of Stewardship

There is one aspect of God that is especially meaningful to us as His people. It is this: God is a God of promises. And when God makes a promise, without fail it will come to pass!

One great promise God made was to Abraham, but also through Abraham, in Genesis 12:2-3. Here is how that promise began:

“I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.”

God blessed Abraham, not for his own consumption or enjoyment, but for the purpose of positioning Abraham to be a blessing to others.

This blessing from God is no less true for us as well. We have truly been blessed! And this blessing is for the benefit of others. As such, God is inviting us to participate in His work and His blessing of bringing the world to know and trust Jesus Christ.

We are in the midst of our Stewardship season. This is a time where we, in faith and trust in God, recommit ourselves to be a blessing to others. Please remember, all that we are and all that we have belongs to God. Through our giving, then, God invites us to faithfully invest a portion for the work of His Kingdom through His church. Please consider the work of our Mission and Ministry here at Trinity Presbyterian Church, and especially God’s immeasurable faithfulness as you devote yourself to a life of stewardship.

Humbly in Christ,

Pastor Steve
