GATHERING TOGETHER

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP: based on Psalm 118:1, 24, 29 Rev. Bob Williams-Neal

Leader: Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.

People: This is the day the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Leader: Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.

* GATHERING SONG: #343—Called as Partners in Christ's Service

* CONFESSING OUR FAITH: The Heidelberg Catechism – Day 21: Questions 54-55

Leader: What do you believe concerning “the holy catholic church”?

All: I believe that the Son of God, through the Holy Spirit and Word, out of the entire human race, from the beginning of the world to its end, gathers, protects, and secures for himself a community chosen for eternal life, united by true faith. And of this community, I am and always will be a living member.

Leader: What do you mean by “the communion of saints”?

All: First, that every believer, as a member of this community, shares in all the treasures and gifts of Christ. Second, each member makes use of these gifts to cheerfully serve and bless the other members.

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (based on The Heidelberg Catechism – Day 21: Question 56) Rev. Bob Williams-Neal

Holy God, because Jesus died to take away the punishment for our sin, we believe you will never hold against us any of our past sins, nor our struggle against sin throughout our lives. Instead, your grace cover us and keep us in the righteousness of Christ. Trusting in your promise and power to forgive, we confess our sins to you... (silent confession)

SILENT CONFESSION ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* GREETING ONE ANOTHER:

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE: #579—Glory Be to the Father

ANTHEM: Think of Me

Reflecting on Stewardship

1 Chronicles 29:11-13

Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all. Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all. Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

May the reason for our abundance be foremost in our hearts and minds whenever we think about giving. And may this move us to sincerely praise God as we offer a portion of our wealth back to him. May we always seek to bring glory to God, and God alone, with our gifts. We are able to give because God has so freely given to us.

World Communion Sunday

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world.

World Communion Sunday (originally called World Wide Communion Sunday) is a gift of the Presbyterian Church to the larger ecumenical church. The first celebration occurred at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1933 where Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr served as pastor.

John A. Dalles, a PCUSA pastor who has researched the history of World Communion Sunday notes this in his blog entry, reprinted from the October 7, 2002, issue of Presbyterian Outlook:

Davitt S. Bell (the late Clerk of Session and church historian at Shadyside) recalled that Dr. Kerr first conceived the notion of World Communion Sunday during his year as moderator of the General Assembly (1930). Dr. Kerr's younger son, the Rev. Dr. Donald Craig Kerr, who is pastor emeritus of the Roland Park Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, was sixteen in 1933. He has related that World Communion Sunday grew out of the Division of Stewardship at Shadyside. It was their attempt to bring churches together in a service of Christian unity—in which everyone might receive both inspiration and information, and above all, to know how important the Church of Jesus Christ is, and how each congregation is interconnected one with another. When I asked Donald Kerr how the idea of World Communion Sunday spread from that first service to the world wide practice of today, this is what he replied,

“The concept spread very slowly at the start. People did not give it a whole lot of thought. It was during the Second World War that the spirit caught hold, because we were trying to hold the world together. World Wide Communion symbolized the effort to hold things together, in a spiritual sense. It emphasized that we are one in the Spirit and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.”

Celebration of World Wide Communion Sunday was adopted as a denominational practice in the Presbyterian Church (US) in 1936. Churches in other denominations were invited to celebrate with us from the beginning, but it wasn't until 1940 when the Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches (a predecessor body of the National Council of Churches) promoted extending the celebration to a number of churches around the world that the practice became widespread. Today, World Communion Sunday is celebrated around the world, demonstrating that the church founded on Jesus Christ peacefully shares God-given goods in a world increasingly destabilized by globalization and global market economies based on greed.

“All who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves.” (1 Cor. 11:29)
