WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHARING JOYS AND CONCERNS

HONORING OUR VETERANS

PRELUDE: Ode to Joy Rachel Shumate, piano

CALL TO WORSHIP: Psalm 23 Carol Hartmann
Leader: The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside quiet waters.
People: He restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Leader: Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
People: You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
All: Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

* GATHERING SONG: It Is Well with My Soul—see insert

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (unison) Carol Hartmann based on “The Grace of the Cross” in The Valley of Vision
Our blessed Savior, we thank you for your wonderful grace and love won for us through your body which bore our sin on the cross. May your cross be to us the tree that sweetens every bitterness, the rod that blooms with life and beauty in our hearts, the staff that beckons us to look and be healed. By your cross, crucify in us every sin. Use the cross to increase our faith and trust in you. By your cross, affirm in us that all is well with our soul because you are our worthy Savior. In the promise of peace that passes all understanding, we confess to you our sins... (a moment of silent confession)

SILENT CONFESSION
ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* GREETING ONE ANOTHER:
Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE: God Is So Good
God is so good. God is so good. God is so good. He’s so good to me. (repeat)

SERMON: A CHRISTIAN MANIFESTO: Good Gifts for Great Children Pastor Steve

AFFIRMING OUR FAITH: The Heidelberg Catechism—Question 1
Leader: What is your only comfort in life and in death?
People: That I belong—body and soul, in life and in death—not to myself but to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ, who at the cost of his own blood has fully paid for all my sins and has completely freed me from the dominion of the devil; that he protects me so well that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that everything must fit his purpose for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit, he also assures me of eternal life, and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

We need volunteers to greet the donors, to offer to pray with the donors and the boxes, and to sit and make sure that the donors are signing in their boxes.

If you are a strong person, we could use your help loading the truck on Saturday, November 21st at 1:00 p.m.

There are sign-up sheets on the Mission Board. Please prayerfully consider helping. We will be having a packing party during WOW on November 18th, please bring items for the boxes.

Annual Christmas Sale
Trinity Presbyterian Women
December 5, 2015 — 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Witnessing to the Promise – Nurturing Faith
Engaging in Mission – Working for Justice and Peace

These are the action statements Trinity Presbyterian Women attempts to embrace. We especially do what we can to help orphans, widows and those displaced from their homes*. Raising money for worthy charities is one way we do it. Every cent earned at our Christmas Sale goes to charities that actively minister to the children, women and families.

The Christmas Sale is well received by the local community and our congregation, with shoppers coming year after year to purchase delicious holiday baked goods and beautifully hand crafted gifts. Fellowship Hall will be full of tables displaying our wares and with guests ready to shop! We have the joy of working together with the end result being the extension of love to those in need and bringing glory to our Lord.

We ask that you join us in this service. Each family is requested to make (not buy from the store or bakery) some special holiday treat as your contribution to the Christmas Sale – several batches of your family’s favorite cookies or candies, holiday breads, cakes or pies. Like many of us, once the Thanksgiving meal has been cleared away and leftovers stored for later, it’s then time to begin Christmas baking. With family and friends around to help, making a few extra batches of special candy and cookies becomes a pleasure!

Instructions for baked goods preparation are on the reverse. Christmas Sale representatives will be in the narthex on Sundays as the event approaches to answer questions you may have. And if you have the ability to volunteer on either Friday or Saturday, December 4 and 5, they can identify places where you can help.

Please invite your friends, family and neighbors to come to the Christmas Sale Saturday, December 5. Arrive early for best selections! Extra fliers are available share.

We thank you for your generous help.

Christmas Sale
Instructions for Baked Goods

Our tradition is that each family participate in this annual event by providing a minimum of two batches of classic Christmas cookies. Following is more information.

1. Label each and every plate, tray, container you want to have returned after the sale!
2. Use festive, pretty cookie plates and trays, even plates on pedestals that are visually attractive.
3. If you have additional plates, trays or pedestaled cake plates to loan for the day, we would welcome them!
4. For cookies and candies, the preferable presentation is:
 - ⇒ Use paper doilies on your plates. Consider securing the doily with Scotch tape. Various sized paper doilies can be obtained in the narthex on Sundays in November should you need them to take home.
 - ⇒ If your items will accommodate it, please stack your goodies high on your plate/tray, placing as much on one plate as possible.
5. Wrap foods securely with plastic wrap.
6. Include a note with:
 - ⇒ The recipe name
 - ⇒ Whether/what kind of nuts are in the recipe
 - ⇒ Your name
7. If you make a cake, pie or bread, can you suggest a fair price for your item? Cookies and most candies are priced “by the pound”.
8. Bring your baked goods to Trinity’s kitchen on Friday, December 4, between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. (If you know you won’t be able to drop off your goods then, please call our Kitchen Chairs so we can make arrangements: Kay Nolan @ 254-2735 or Sandra Hollensead @ 593-4014.)

Not unlike a cookie exchange, instead of receiving more cookies, your return is knowing that you helped to raise funds that will go to treatment options for disabled youth, seed money to start a home business for impoverished mothers, clean water, natural disaster victims in the region, educational opportunities, and more.

Thank you!
