GATHERING TOGETHER

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHARING JOYS AND CONCERNS

PRELUDE: Come Ye Thankful People Come The Chancel Bells

CALL TO WORSHIP: based on Psalm 100 Cathy Conn

Leader: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!
People: Serve the lord with gladness!
Leader: Come into his presence with singing! Know that the Lord, he is God!
People: It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Leader: Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!
People: For the Lord is good; and his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

* GATHERING SONG: #263—Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (unison) Cathy Conn
God, we confess that we have not always followed your will. We take the easy way. Instead of forgiving, we hold onto our anger. Instead of sharing what we have, we hold onto our greed. We do not love as you love. We allow the world to come between us and you. Have mercy on us, O God, help us to turn from our ways, and forgive the sins we confess to you...

SILENT CONFESSION ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* GREETING ONE ANOTHER:
Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE: God Is So Good
God is so good. God is so good. God is so good. He’s so good to me. (repeat)

WoW: November 25th: No WoW. HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!

SAVE THE DATE: The Christmas dinner is on Sunday, December 13th at 5:00 p.m. It is potluck with the Fellowship providing the meat, bread and drinks. Please bring a dish to share. A sign-up sheet is on the Fellowship bulletin board.

TPW CHRISTMAS SALE: Please note two inserts regarding the Christmas sale in the bulletin this week. One has information about the mission of the sale, and the need for volunteers. Please check the sign-up sheets on the TPW bulletin board to add your name to the lists. The second is a flyer giving the date and time of the sale. Please use this flyer to mark your calendars, and then take the flyer with you to post at your work, gym, community center, etc. Just as an idea, the flyer can also be copied to put in the paper boxes of neighbors. Color printed flyers are available in the Narthex to give to area businesses as you go about errands. The more the word gets out, the more people will come in!!

We are requesting that all who are able provide a minimum of four dozen cookies (or preferably more), and any combination of cookies, cakes, pies, or candy, to our Dec. 5 Christmas sale.

Cookies should be stacked neatly on plates and wrapped well with cellophane to retain freshness. Other baked items should also be wrapped as well. Please label the plates/trays that you wish returned to you. We also have a limited supply of trays in the kitchen for your use. If you bring a special cake or other baked good that will not be sold by weight, please suggest a price. You will be asked to identify the ingredients in your recipe for a recipe card to alert buyers of any ingredient to which they may be allergic. Baked goods are to be dropped off in the TPC kitchen 9 am to 7 pm on Friday Dec 4, 2015.

We are still in need of hostesses to fill the containers of our guests as they request items from our trays at the sale. If you have every had visions of sugar plums dance in your head, this assignment is for you. Please sign up on the sheet posted on the TPW board in the hallway to the left of the sanctuary entrance, or let me know by return e-mail and I will sign you up..

Our Christmas sale crew sincerely thanks you and wishes you a Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas!

APPAREL DISTRIBUTION AND ADDITIONAL FOR PURCHASE: The Evangelism Committee will be distributing TPC logo shirts in the Narthex today. If you recently ordered a shirt, please stop by to receive your order. We have several extras, so if you are interested, come see us!

Annual Christmas Sale
Trinity Presbyterian Women
December 5, 2015 — 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Witnessing to the Promise – Nurturing Faith
Engaging in Mission – Working for Justice and Peace

These are the action statements Trinity Presbyterian Women attempts to embrace. We especially do what we can to help orphans, widows and those displaced from their homes*. Raising money for worthy charities is one way we do it. Every cent earned at our Christmas Sale goes to charities that actively minister to the children, women and families.

The Christmas Sale is well received by the local community and our congregation, with shoppers coming year after year to purchase delicious holiday baked goods and beautifully hand crafted gifts. Fellowship Hall will be full of tables displaying our wares and with guests ready to shop! We have the joy of working together with the end result being the extension of love to those in need and bringing glory to our Lord.

We ask that you join us in this service. Each family is requested to make (not buy from the store or bakery) some special holiday treat as your contribution to the Christmas Sale – several batches of your family’s favorite cookies or candies, holiday breads, cakes or pies. Like many of us, once the Thanksgiving meal has been cleared away and leftovers stored for later, it’s then time to begin Christmas baking. With family and friends around to help, making a few extra batches of special candy and cookies becomes a pleasure!

Instructions for baked goods preparation are on the reverse. Christmas Sale representatives will be in the narthex on Sundays as the event approaches to answer questions you may have. And if you have the ability to volunteer on either Friday or Saturday, December 4 and 5, they can identify places where you can help.

Please invite your friends, family and neighbors to come to the Christmas Sale Saturday, December 5. Arrive early for best selections! Extra fliers are available share.

We thank you for your generous help.

Christmas Sale
Instructions for Baked Goods

Our tradition is that each family participate in this annual event by providing a minimum of two batches of classic Christmas cookies. Following is more information.

1. Label each and every plate, tray, container you want to have returned after the sale!
2. Use festive, pretty cookie plates and trays, even plates on pedestals that are visually attractive.
3. If you have additional plates, trays or pedestaled cake plates to loan for the day, we would welcome them!
4. For cookies and candies, the preferable presentation is:
 - ⇒ Use paper doilies on your plates. Consider securing the doily with Scotch tape. Various sized paper doilies can be obtained in the narthex on Sundays in November should you need them to take home.
 - ⇒ If your items will accommodate it, please stack your goodies high on your plate/tray, placing as much on one plate as possible.
5. Wrap foods securely with plastic wrap.
6. Include a note with:
 - ⇒ The recipe name
 - ⇒ Whether/what kind of nuts are in the recipe
 - ⇒ Your name
7. If you make a cake, pie or bread, can you suggest a fair price for your item? Cookies and most candies are priced “by the pound”.
8. Bring your baked goods to Trinity’s kitchen on Friday, December 4, between 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. (If you know you won’t be able to drop off your goods then, please call our Kitchen Chairs so we can make arrangements: Kay Nolan @ 254-2735 or Sandra Hollensead @ 593-4014.)

Not unlike a cookie exchange, instead of receiving more cookies, your return is knowing that you helped to raise funds that will go to treatment options for disabled youth, seed money to start a home business for impoverished mothers, clean water, natural disaster victims in the region, educational opportunities, and more.

Thank you!
