PRELUDE

CONFESSING OUR FAITH

Rev. Bob Williams-Neal

* based on 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it saying, “This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

GATHERING SONG: #343—Called as Partners in Christ’s Service

 PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

Rev. Bob Williams-Neal

Our Master and our God, by your creation, by your providence, and by your blood, we are not our own, but yours. We are vessels designed for your honor and glory. And yet, we rebel, we fall, we wander. We sin against you. By the cross of Jesus, free and forgive us. By the resurrection of Jesus, may we always live as those who belong—body, soul, and spirit—to you, O Lord. Hear our prayer... (silent confession)

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

 GREETING ONE ANOTHER:

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Giving to God of My Spiritual Gifts

"...just as you did it to one of the least of these members of my family, you did it to me..."
—Matthew 25:31-40, NRSV

One of the most vivid parables Jesus ever told is recorded in Matthew 25:31-40. "You did it to me" is a clear lesson: Actions are joined to beliefs. God will judge according to our response to human need and suffering. We will be judged on how well we serve, witness, and invite.

As followers of Christ, we have been called to be people through whom Christ has eyes to see, ears to hear, feet to approach, hands to touch, hearts to feel, and souls to respond. To take up the towel of service may mean that as servants we will advocate, work toward reconciliation, and invite people toward a new way of living that is consistent with all that Christ came to model.

Serving, giving witness, and inviting are vital for the spiritual health of the believer and the congregation. As there are countless needs, there are also abundant opportunities to serve and gifts to employ in the gathered church and wider community. The wonder of it all is that in serving one another, we serve Jesus Christ.

Questions for Reflection

- What opportunities do you see to serve your wider community?
- What gifts are needed to serve in these ways?
- How could you match peoples' gifts with these opportunities to serve?

World Communion Sunday

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world.

World Communion Sunday (originally called World Wide Communion Sunday) is a gift of the Presbyterian Church to the larger ecumenical church. The first celebration occurred at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1933 where Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr served as pastor.

John A. Dalles, a PCUSA pastor who has researched the history of World Communion Sunday notes this in his blog entry, reprinted from the October 7, 2002, issue of Presbyterian Outlook:

Davitt S. Bell (the late Clerk of Session and church historian at Shadyside) recalled that Dr. Kerr first conceived the notion of World Communion Sunday during his year as moderator of the General Assembly (1930). Dr. Kerr's younger son, the Rev. Dr. Donald Craig Kerr, who is pastor emeritus of the Roland Park Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, was sixteen in 1933. He has related that World Communion Sunday grew out of the Division of Stewardship at Shadyside. It was their attempt to bring churches together in a service of Christian unity—in which everyone might receive both inspiration and information, and above all, to know how important the Church of Jesus Christ is, and how each congregation is interconnected one with another. When I asked Donald Kerr how the idea of World Communion Sunday spread from that first service to the world wide practice of today, this is what he replied,

“The concept spread very slowly at the start. People did not give it a whole lot of thought. It was during the Second World War that the spirit caught hold, because we were trying to hold the world together. World Wide Communion symbolized the effort to hold things together, in a spiritual sense. It emphasized that we are one in the Spirit and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.”

Celebration of World Wide Communion Sunday was adopted as a denominational practice in the Presbyterian Church (US) in 1936. Churches in other denominations were invited to celebrate with us from the beginning, but it wasn't until 1940 when the Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches (a predecessor body of the National Council of Churches) promoted extending the celebration to a number of churches around the world that the practice became widespread. Today, World Communion Sunday is celebrated around the world, demonstrating that the church founded on Jesus Christ peacefully shares God-given goods in a world increasingly destabilized by globalization and global market economies based on greed.

“All who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves.” (1 Cor. 11:29)
