O Day of Peace that Dimly Shines

O day of peace that dimly shines
Through all our hopes and prayers and dreams,
Guide us to justice, truth and love, Delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands, Our hearts from envy find release,
Till by God’s grace our warring world Shall see Christ’s promised reign of peace.
Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, nor shall the fierce devour the small;
As beasts and cattle calmly graze, a little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love, all creatures find their true accord; the hope of peace shall be fulfilled, for all the earth shall know the Lord.

Maryhurst Opportunity

This year we have a new opportunity for you to reach out into our community and help some children that are going through rough times. We are sponsoring 20 children in the Maryhurst Holiday Gift Drive. This is a program that Maryhurst has where they provide three gifts totaling $125 to the children for Christmas. The program we are working with is their Renewal program which is one where they are working with families that have children that are about to enter programs where they are removed from their homes. In this program they are working to try and keep the families together vs splitting them up. We will have more information and signups in the Narthex starting this Sunday. The gifts are due back to Trinity by December 8th if at all possible. Please consider adopting a Maryhurst child for the holidays. They need God's and our love in this most festive time of the year.

Elders

Throughout the Old Testament, elders were established for governing God's people. The role of elders continued in the New Testament as those who discerned the leading of the Holy Spirit and cared for God's people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling Elders are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the Word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life.

Ruling Elders, together with Teaching Elders, exercise leadership, governance, spiritual discernment, and discipline, as well as serve those responsible for the life of the congregation.

TRINITY ELDERS will...

- Be able to spiritually lead and guide the church.
- Support and attend programs of the church.
- Support the Pastor and assist as needed.
- Support the church financially, and with the dedication of time and talents.
- Attend Session meetings regularly.
- Participate in elder training when provided.
- Chair or co-chair a standing committee, and serve as a member of the Personnel Committee if chairing a committee with staff reporting to it.
- Attend a Presbytery Meeting as a representative of TPC (once or twice during term).
- Continue to study and strengthen their walk of faith in Christ.

Deacons

The ministry of deacons as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service, by sharing the redeeming love of Christ to the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress. Persons of spiritual character, honest reputation, exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgement should be chosen for this ministry.
