GATHERING TOGETHER

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP based on Galatian 5:13–14 Jennifer Hacker
Leader: When Christ called us, we were called to freedom in Him.
People: This freedom is not so that we can serve ourselves; rather, we are set free to love one another.
Leader: For all of God’s Law is summed up in a single command:
People: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

* GATHERING SONG In Christ There is No East or West #439

* CONFESSION OF SIN & ASSURANCE OF PARDON Jennifer Hacker
Most gracious and loving Father, you never stop beckoning us to love and praise and honor you as perfectly holy and perpetually good. And yet, our heart is closed to you until it is opened by the Holy Spirit. Warm our cold heart. Change our broken heart. Make our wayward heart hunger for your holiness. Take away our love of sinning, and replace it with a love for seeking and savoring you as our highest good. And so, in the name of Christ, we confess our sins to you ... (silent confession)

* GREETING ONE ANOTHER
Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

* SONG OF RESPONSE Sanctuary
Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true.
With thanksgiving, I’ll be a living sanctuary for you.

* CONFESSING OUR FAITH The Apostles’ Creed (Traditional) p.14

Maryhurst Opportunity

Thank you to everyone who volunteered to sponsor one of the 20 children in the Maryhurst Holiday Gift Drive. They were all adopted within 20 minutes of the end of the service Sunday! This is a program that Maryhurst has where they provide three gifts totaling $125 to the children for Christmas. The program we are working with is their Renewal program which is one where they are working with families that have children that are about to enter programs where they are removed from their homes. In this program they are working to try and keep the families together vs splitting them up.

If anyone else would still like to adopt a child, we can request more names from Maryhurst. Just call the church office, or let Max Oyler know. The gifts are due back to Trinity by December 8th if at all possible.

Elders

Throughout the Old Testament, elders were established for governing God's people. The role of elders continued in the New Testament as those who discerned the leading of the Holy Spirit and cared for God's people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling Elders are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the Word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life.

Ruling Elders, together with Teaching Elders, exercise leadership, governance, spiritual discernment, and discipline, as well as serve those responsible for the life of the congregation.

TRINITY ELDERS will...

- Be able to spiritually lead and guide the church.
- Support and attend programs of the church.
- Support the Pastor and assist as needed.
- Support the church financially, and with the dedication of time and talents.
- Attend Session meetings regularly.
- Participate in elder training when provided.
- Chair or co-chair a standing committee, and serve as a member of the Personnel Committee if chairing a committee with staff reporting to it.
- Attend a Presbytery Meeting as a representative of TPC (once or twice during term).
- Continue to study and strengthen their walk of faith in Christ.

Deacons

The ministry of deacons as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service, by sharing the redeeming love of Christ to the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress. Persons of spiritual character, honest reputation, exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgement should be chosen for this ministry.

TRINITY DEACONS will...

- Support and attend programs of the church.
- Support the church financially, and with the dedication of time and talents.
