1 Peter 3:18-22

¹⁸ For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, ¹⁹ in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, ²⁰ because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. ²¹ Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²² who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.

A LIVING HOPE:
Hope and the Savior
1 Peter 3:18-22

1. The Suffering of the Innocent Savior (v. 18a)
2. The Victory of the Incomparable Savior (v. 18b-21)

The Offer of the Inviting Savior (v. 22)

Some Thoughts and Quotes:

"Because Jesus drank so deeply of bitter suffering, he is able to steady our hand as we drink what for us is a bitter draught but is, by comparison with his, a diluted cup." (Herbert Carson)

"It is worthy noting that suffering only becomes a problem when we accept the existence of a good God." (David Watson)

"God understands our suffering because he has experienced it." (Francis Bridger)

As we are dismissed from the service today, we will empty the sanctuary from the back to the front of the church. Please do not attempt to leave if there are still people exiting in the back.

Also, remember to maintain at least six (6) feet between people at all times.

Thank you!
