Acts 13:44-52

⁴⁴ The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵ But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what was spoken by Paul, reviling him. ⁴⁶ And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷ For so the Lord has commanded us, saying,

"I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth."

⁴⁸ And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹ And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region. ⁵⁰ But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. ⁵¹ But they shook off the dust from their feet against them and went to Iconium.

⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

The Church of the Word in the World

What is the church?

Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed:

*"We believe in one, holy,
catholic, and apostolic church..."*

Catholicity

1. Rather than referring to the particular Roman Catholic Church, catholicity refers to the church's universality.

The church is catholic because of (1) the presence of the triune God in it and (2) the universal commission given to it by Christ (Matt. 28:19; Acts 1:8)

Warnings against divisions in the church (Rom 16:17-18; Titus 3:10-11)

2. 500 years ago, the Protestant Reformers objected to the Roman Catholic Church's claim that it alone is the true church of Christ.

3. Martin Luther and John Calvin offered the two marks of a true church, and the Reformers' commitment to catholicity eventually resulted in Protestant missionary movements.

4. Practically speaking, how does catholicity express itself in our church?

Apostolicity

1. The church is apostolic in the sense of adhering to the teachings of the apostles, as those doctrines and practices were written down in Scripture.

Jesus chose twelve apostles; they are the foundation of the church (Eph. 2:20).

"you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles" (2 Pet 3:2)

2. Historically, the church extended its apostolicity to include an authoritative Tradition and an authoritative Magisterium, as well as added the doctrine of apostolic succession.

3. 500 years ago, the Reformers championed the Protestant principle of sola Scriptura (Scripture alone; or Scripture as ultimate authority). Protestantism rejected both Roman Catholic Tradition and the Magisterium as the determiner and interpreter of both Scripture and Tradition.

4. Practically speaking, how does apostolicity express itself in our church?
