1 Crown him with man - y crowns, the Lamb up - on his throne.
2 Crown him the Lord of life, who tri - umphed o'er the grave,
3 Crown him the Lord of love; be - hold his hands and side,
4 Crown him the Lord of years, the po - ten - tate of time,

Hark! how the heav - en - ly an - them drowns all mu - sic but its own.
and rose vic - to - rious in the strife for those he came to save;
rich wounds, yet vis - i - ble a - bove, in beau - ty glo - ri - fied;
crea - a - tor of the roll - ing spheres, in - ef - fa - bly sub - lime.

A - wake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
his glo - ries now we sing who died and rose on high,
no an - gels in the sky can ful - ly bear that sight,
All hail, Re - deem - er, hail! for thou hast died for me;

and hail him as thy match - less king through all e - ter - ni - ty.
who died e - ter - nal life to bring, and lives that death may die.
but down - ward bend their burn - ing eyes at mys - ter - ies so bright.
thy praise shall nev - er, nev - er fail through - out e - ter - ni - ty.

1 Timothy 4:6-10

⁶ If you put these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being trained in the words of the faith and of the good doctrine that you have followed.

⁷ Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; ⁸ for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. ⁹ The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. ¹⁰ For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

Welcome to the start of a new study with TPW. Our first meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 8, at 10.30 a.m. We usually meet in the parlor but, depending on the size of our group this year, we may need to be in the fellowship hall in order to maintain personal distancing. Our study is once again from the Being Reformed series. This one is entitled “Discipleship: The Way of Jesus.” It’s an exciting study about the call of discipleship and its consequent problems, identity, pathways and fruits. In our first meeting we will be looking at a general overview of the book. We hope you will join us for a great time of fellowship and study.

SEW ‘N SEWS ARE ON VIDEO

First some background. We were invited to give a missions testimony at the March WOW!, but it was cancelled (no explanation needed!). With Imad’s help we have recorded the story of our major ministries, room renovation, and now mask making.

Sew ‘n Sews have posted our video, Over a Thousand Masks, on our church’s website Facebook page. Go to the church’s Website, www.tpclouisville.net, From the website, click on the Facebook icon on the top right of the page, and then scroll down to view the video.

When asked to Log in or Create New Account, you can click on “Not Now” and still view the video. Scroll down until you see the picture with “1,000 Masks” in the upper left-hand corner.

Feel free to share by posting the video to your personal Facebook page. Our community could use some Good News!
