GATHERING TOGETHER

PRELUDE

GREETING and INVITATION TO WORSHIP

Ash Wednesday begins the season known as Lent. Lent is a time to prepare for the celebration of Easter, whereby we renew our rootedness in the gracious miracle of Christ's saving death and resurrection. We do this by engaging in the practice of repentance, by which we ask for and receive the mercy and forgiveness offered through Jesus Christ. So, let us start this Lenten journey to Easter by reflecting on our own frailty and our own fallenness. Therefore, I invite you to observe a holy Lent by self-examination and humility, by prayer and fasting, by works of love, by reading and reflecting on the Word of God, and by personal faith in Christ alone who suffered in our place to secure for us eternal adoption into God's heavenly family.

CALL TO WORSHIP based on Psalm 90:1–4

Leader: Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

People: Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Leader: You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"

People: For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

1. When I fear my faith will fail, Christ will hold me fast;
 2. I could nev - er keep my hold, He will hold me fast;
 3. I am pre - cious in His sight, He will hold me fast;
 4. He'll not let my soul be lost, Christ will hold me fast;

When the tempt - er would pre - vail, He can hold me fast.
 For my love is oft - en cold, He can hold me fast.
 Those He saves are His de - light, He can hold me fast.
 Bought by Him at such a cost, He can hold me fast.

He will hold me fast, hold me fast, He will hold me fast; hold me fast;
 For my Sav - iour loves me so, He will hold me fast.
