Scripture reading for next week:

THE SACRED SABBATH:
Enjoying God Forever
Habakkuk 3:16–19

After a few years of experiencing “deferred maintenance”, our lovely church is crying out for our attention.

Support Services is sponsoring a day for us to “spiff up” Trinity inside and out. We need all hands on deck to complete many varied tasks. Please set aside as much time as you are able to join our happy group.

Date: Saturday, June 18th

9:00am – 1:00pm

This is only a partial list of areas that need attention:

- Garage – cleanout inside; paint outside
- Sidewalks – power wash
- Narthex – purge stored items
- Women’s SS room – purge and reorganize items
- Kitchen – polish all stainless surfaces, etc.
- Janitor/Boiler rooms – purge, organize supplies
- Many others you may know of

Some cleaning/painting tools will be provided but bring your own work gloves, cloths, buckets, tools, etc.

For information ask Thomas Douglas or Carol Hartmann.

Update from TPW and Sew 'n Sews

Stacy Mills and Sandra Hollensead visited Lifehouse Maternity Home on June 1 bearing handmade crafts from the Sew 'n Sews. Delivered were baby blankets, caps, devotional guides, and Bible study books. Dollie Neikirk, executive director, received the gifts. All babies born to mothers within the care of the Lifehouse programs are given baby blankets. In addition, expectant mothers visiting the home receive a blanket even if choosing to not join the program.

Kristin Kennedy, development manager, joined us for a tour of the remodeled kitchen and great room area. A donation from TPW helped to enlarge the kitchen to accommodate counter tops, cabinets, and updated appliances.

Stacy and Sandra met two residents rocking their infants, and their joyful pride in the babies was precious to witness. Thank you Stacy for photographing the visit!!

Read more about the Lifehouse support of pregnant women who want to have their babies but do not have needed support at <https://lifehouselouisville.org>

Gifts are displayed in a child's wagon at the Lifehouse family room.
