Items from Calvin Presbyterian Church

> Dear Trinity Congregation:

> We are the fortunate and grateful recipients of a large quantity of choral music, solo music, Renew Hymnals and other musical supplies from the Calvin Presbyterian congregation.

>

It is humbling to be gifted with these wonderful items and we will thankfully and gratefully use them to the Glory of God in our worship here at Trinity.

> Melissa Weaver

On behalf of our Trinity Congregation and particularly our worship committee members, I wish to thank Calvin Presbyterian Church for giving us several banners from their marvelous and abundant collection. We will hang them proudly in our sanctuary during our worship services and we will think of the Calvin Congregation with much love always. These banners are gorgeous and present such treasured memories of Calvin.

Cathy Conn

After a few years of experiencing “deferred maintenance”, our lovely church is crying out for our attention.

Support Services is sponsoring a day for us to “spiff up” Trinity inside and out. We need all hands on deck to complete many varied tasks. Please set aside as much time as you are able to join our happy group.

Date: Saturday, June 18th
9:00am – 1:00pm

This is only a partial list of areas that need attention:

Garage – cleanout inside; paint outside
 Sidewalks – power wash
 Narthex – purge stored items
 Women’s SS room – purge and reorganize items
 Kitchen – polish all stainless surfaces, etc.
 Janitor/Boiler rooms – purge, organize supplies
 Many others you may know of

Some cleaning/painting tools will be provided but bring your own work gloves, cloths, buckets, tools, etc.
 For information ask Thomas Douglas or Carol Hartmann.
