Through the Bible Together

As we begin this new year, let us join one another in reading through the Bible together. There is no greater book we can immerse ourselves in or invest our time in reading than God’s Word. The schedule we will follow is the “Five Day Bible Reading” plan. This plan assigns an Old Testament and New Testament passage to read for five days each week. That way, if we get behind, we always have two “make up” days to get caught up.

Please earnestly consider joining us on this Bible reading journey together. Setting aside regular time in God’s Word, by listening to the voice of God and hearing the Holy Spirit apply truth to our lives, will grow us individually and collectively as devoted followers of Jesus Christ. Each week’s reading will be published in our weekly worship bulletin for our convenience and accountability. Or, you may pick up a printed copy in the Narthex. Let’s begin this year-long adventure through the Bible together.

Week Three: January 15–21
Genesis 28–29; Mark 11
Genesis 30–31; Psalm 11; Mark 12
Genesis 32–34; Psalm 145; Mark 13
Genesis 35–37; Psalm 12; Mark 14
Genesis 38–40; Mark 15

O Great God

O Great God of highest heaven, occupy my lowly heart. Own it all and reign supreme, conquer every rebel power. Let no vice or sin remain that resists your holy war. You have loved and purchased me, make me yours forever more. I was blinded by my din, had no ears to hear your voice, did not know your love within, had no taste for heavens joys. Then your spirit gave me life, opened up your word to me through the gospel of Your Son, gave me endless hope and peace. Help me now to live a life that’s dependent on your grace. Keep my heart and guard my soul from the evils that I face. You are worthy to be praised with my every thought and deed. O great God of highest heaven, glorify your name through me.
