BRIDGING THE GAP:

No Separation

Romans 8:37-39

After Jesus died on the cross, you may recall that Joseph of Arimathea took care of the burial details for Jesus, including the tomb in which the body of Jesus was placed. Here is how one person imagined what the conversation between Pontius Pilate and Joseph might have been like.

Pilate: “Joseph, I really don’t understand. You’re one of the richest men in the region, and you’ve spent a small fortune on a new tomb for you and your family. Are you sure you want to give it to this man, Jesus?”

Joseph: “Sure. It’s only for the weekend!”

The Finished Work of Christ

“After Jesus received the the sponge of wine, he said, ‘It is finished.’” (John 19:30)

“The angels said to the women, ‘Why do you look for the living among the dead?’” (Luke 24:5)

“The gospel is the power of God for salvation to all who believe.” (Romans 1:16)

Evidence for the Resurrection of Christ

The Falsifiable Religion

Among all the religions of the world, Christianity is perhaps the most falsifiable of all. While the founder of every other religion died (and stayed dead), Jesus Christ died and is claimed to be alive again. So, if it could be proven that Christ did not rise from the dead, the whole Christian faith would crumble. The Apostle Paul even made such an observation in 1 Corinthians 15:12-19. And yet, the reliable evidence for the resurrection of Christ is substantial and overwhelming.

Evidence for Christ's Resurrection

1. Jesus really died by crucifixion

The Roman soldier's observation and conclusion about Jesus (John 19:31-37).

Concern that the body of Jesus would be stolen (Matthew 27:62-66).

2. The testimony of the followers of Jesus

The early preaching of Christ's resurrection by the disciples (1 Corinthians 15:3-7).

The invitation to verify the disciples' claims about Christ's resurrection (Acts 2:32; 10:40-41).

Their willingness to die for their belief in the resurrection.

3. The testimony of non-followers of Jesus

Saul of Tarsus (Acts 9:1-9)

James, the half-brother of Jesus (Matthew 13:55-57; Acts 1:14, 15:13, Galatians 1:19).

4. The empty tomb

The eyewitness accounts of Christ's followers (Matthew 28, Mark 16, Luke 24, John 20).

The "story" spread by Jewish and Roman authorities (Matthew 28:13-14).

BRIDGING THE GAP: NO SEPARATION

Mega-Conquerors (v. 37)

We are not those who merely experience the victory Christ won; we are those who get to enjoy eternally the full application and breadth of the victory Christ won. We are mega-conquerors, super-conquerors, with and in Christ, over every foe and enemy and opposition to the glory of God. As such, we participate in the eternal victory parade of this magnificent and comic triumph.

Secure through Every Circumstance (v. 38-39a)

Operation Christmas Child Donation Opportunities

The Mission Committee requests your consideration in making shoebox gift donations throughout the next several months so our supplies will be plentiful for our shoebox packing event to once again be held July/August.

The items being collected are:

UNDERWEAR SOCKS T-SHIRTS FLIP-FLOPS

These items may be for boys or girls in sizes appropriate for ages 2-4, ages 5-9, or ages 10-14. We intentionally pack more boxes for ages 10-14 as statistically the least number of boxes are packed for this age group.

You may drop off your donations from now through the end of June into the bin provided in the Narthex. We will periodically gather the donations, update our inventory, and sort the items according to sex and age.

Please consider donating to this worthy ministry. And join us in praying that Trinity's 2024 Shoebox Season will be fruitful!

Christian Education Opportunities

Koinonia

The Koinonia class is a seminar-based gathering that is presently focused on an introduction to the New Testament (its formation, history, background, and content). It spends some time on the individual books but at this point doesn't make an in-depth study of a particular one. In the past, the class has studied the history of the Church and a long-term study of the book of Acts. This coming year the focus will be on the writings of Paul, other letters, and the book of Revelation. The first gatherings will consist of a review of covered material. Participants can join the class in the Parlor or via Zoom.

Resources include video lectures from Dr. Dale Martin of Yale University and presentation slides. The style is a relaxed one with much attention paid to questions, concerns, and insights of those involved.

Digging Deeper

There are two important ways we immerse ourselves in the Word of God. One way is through the sermon during our gathered times of worship. The other is through personal and corporate Bible Study. To this end, and in addition to the other Sunday school classes we offer, Pastor Steve leads this study as we dig deeper into the Bible passage for next week's sermon. We gather on Monday mornings at 10 AM in the Library.

If this study interests you, please contact Pastor Steve (stevejewell356@gmail.com).

Women's Sunday School

The Women's Sunday School class meets at 9:45 in the library. We will begin studying Max Lucado's book, Trade Your Cares for Calm, on April 14. In addition to seeking greater understanding, we share joys and concerns and enjoy fellowship with one another.

The leaders of this class are:

Lois Bringhurst loisbringhurst2@gmail.com
(502) 819-8936

Cathy Dawson ccdawson47@gmail.com
(502) 693-3710

Lucie Fulmore lfulmore@twc.com
(502) 802-5096

Youth Group

The Youth Sunday School class meets at 9:45 in the Youth Room downstairs, and is open to all Middle and High School students seeking to deepen their understanding of God's Word. The Youth class aims to study the Bible and apply God's Perfect Word to the lives of students as they navigate their teenage world. This fall, the class will dive into a study of the teenage battlefield. Led by Rebecca Perry, the youth will study how to shine the light of Christ—whether we are at school, out with friends, or at home. In addition to studying, the youth will also meet once a month for evenings of fellowship and fun!

Sprouts Sunday School

Kids ages five through 4th grade are invited to join this group to learn more about growing in Christ. We will study how to grow and produce the fruit of the Spirit. This Sunday School is led by Diane Jewell (djewell35@gmail.com). We welcome all young eager learners.

Nursery Care

If you have a little one (0-4 years old), nursery care is available upon request. Diane Jewell is eager to sing, play with, and entertain your children, so you can worship God without worry or distraction. Please let Diane or the Greeter know you would like to make use of our nursery care.
