PERSONAL NOTES

Big Idea to Remember

Because the harvest belongs to God, we can faithfully invest everything He has given us in the purposes of His Kingdom, trusting His promise and persevering in doing good.

"And let us not grow weary of doing good,
for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up."
Galatians 6:9

SERMON NOTES

Sharing What We Have — v. 6

- ➔ Our life together in Christ calls us to share what God has provided—supporting His Word, caring for one another, and participating in His mission.
- ➔ Stewardship involves more than what we give; it concerns how we manage everything God has placed in our care.

What I have is truly mine, but it is never mine absolutely.

Sowing Who We Are — v. 7-8

- ➔ "Whatever one sows, that will he also reap." Our daily choices and priorities reveal the kind of life we are cultivating.
- ➔ Sowing to the Spirit is the fruit of God's transforming grace, not a means of earning eternal life.

Priority determines what comes first.
Totality determines what we offer.
And eternity determines what we are living for.

Faithfully Doing What We Can — v. 9-10

- ➔ "Let us not grow weary in doing good." God's promised harvest encourages perseverance, even when the results of our faithfulness remain unseen.
- ➔ While we await God's harvest, we are called to use our present opportunities to do good to others, especially fellow believers.

The harvest belongs to the Lord. But now is our season for sowing.
